Q. What will we be doing at the Club retreats or events?

- A. The Private Circle Club is about living your ultimate life, which means it's not just all business. A person is most successful when all areas of his or her life - spiritual, emotional, mental and physical - co-exist in harmonic balance. Our program successfully integrates all four of these aspects, with T. Harv Eker and special guest trainers as your guides. All Club events will also provide members with formal and informal opportunities to network, build strategic partnerships and develop friendships. The result is transformational experiences leading to real-world results.
